

England Does The Daily Mile™ is a national event day in schools and across social media to celebrate active schools and good mental health.

On Friday 30th April Benton Dene School will be getting active together and we will running or walking a mile!

This is a free event and we would like all children to come to school wearing their own sports clothes on the day.

Thanks PE team.

